DESCRIPTION OF LEVELS

Examples of work and descriptions are meant to progress through the levels. For example, an employee at level V may also perform work listed within the previous levels.

Note: Factors that may distinguish between the entry and journey levels include the level of independence in performing the work and the complexity of the work and may include the employee's years of related experience, education, and certifications. Employees at the journey levels may independently perform the full range of work listed in the examples or may assist others in that work.

TAXPAYER ENFORCEMENT OFFICER I: Performs entry-level professional tax enforcement work. Works under close supervision, with minimal latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may have limited or no experience and spend the majority of their time performing simple to routine work following standard procedures.

TAXPAYER ENFORCEMENT OFFICER II: Performs routine (journey-level) professional tax enforcement work. Works under moderate supervision, with limited latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may rely on direction from others to solve problems that are not standard. Employees may assist others in performing work of greater complexity and may work with other state agencies and local law enforcement.

TAXPAYER ENFORCEMENT OFFICER III: Performs complex (journey-level) professional tax enforcement work. Works under general supervision, with moderate latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may work more independently than those at the previous levels and may routinely assist others in performing work of greater complexity.

Note: Any senior-level employee (levels IV-V) can serve as a team lead or supervisor; however, supervisory responsibilities within this job classification series will normally be found at level V.

A senior-level employee may perform the full range of work identified in the preceding levels and may coordinate, evaluate, or oversee that work for others. Factors that may distinguish between senior levels include the scope of responsibility and oversight, the complexity of the work performed, and the employee's related experience, education, and certifications.

TAXPAYER ENFORCEMENT OFFICER IV: Performs highly complex (senior-level) professional tax enforcement work. Works under limited supervision, with considerable latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may independently perform the most complex tax enforcement work and may:

- Analyze each case, tax account or assignment to determine the appropriate next steps in accordance with agency policy and procedure and in adherence with tax laws.
- Conduct tax seminars and makes presentations on tax-related topics to the public.

TAXPAYER ENFORCEMENT OFFICER V: Performs advanced (senior-level) professional tax enforcement work. Works under minimal supervision, with considerable latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may be considered technical experts in the field and may train, guide, coordinate, supervise, and review the work of others.
